CT NONPROFIT COMPENSATION AND BENEFITS

REPORT

The Alliance
Voice of Community Nonprofits

ABOUT THE SURVEY REPORT

The CT Community Nonprofit Alliance (The Alliance) is the statewide association of community nonprofits in Connecticut. Our mission is to advance excellence in community-based nonprofits through advocacy and capacity building. We share the passion and purpose behind each and every organization's mission and channel that purpose into a powerful, collective voice. We lead from a position of strength, representing nonprofits while presenting a united front before the Connecticut state legislature, state agencies, the public and the media. We advance strategies and public policies that make it possible for nonprofits to thrive.

Recognizing that access to reliable compensation data is essential for sustaining nonprofit missions and retaining strong teams, we commissioned this independent survey and report. Our goal is to equip nonprofit leaders with critical data to help align pay with organizational values and promote fair and consistent compensation practices.

This report:

- Is specifically designed for Connecticut nonprofits and remains the only comprehensive, up-to-date resource of its kind in the state.
- Covers roles that are commonly found in the CT nonprofit workforce but are often missing from regional or national compensation studies.
- Provides detailed pay and benefits data from nonprofits of all sizes and service areas throughout the state.

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

We appreciate the many individuals who dedicated their time and effort to developing and publishing this report. This project would not have been possible without the support of our community foundation partners, whose sponsorship and outreach efforts helped ensure broad participation from nonprofits across Connecticut.

Thanks to their generosity, we are able to offer this report at no cost to all CT nonprofits, providing even the smallest organizations with essential compensation and benefits data to help guide their pay structures and decision-making.

We also extend our gratitude to the nonprofit staff represented in this survey who remain steadfast in their mission, showing up every day to support their communities. To all the passionate and hardworking nonprofit professionals—thank you!

The UNH Survey Center is an independent, non-partisan academic survey research organization and division of the UNH College of Liberal Arts. The Survey Center conducts telephone, mail, web, and intercept surveys, as well as focus groups and other qualitative research for university researchers, government agencies, public non-profit organizations, private businesses and media clients. Our senior staff have over 50 years experience in designing and conducting custom research on a broad range of political, social, health care, and other public policy issues.

Executive Summary

The University of New Hampshire Survey Center conducted a survey for the Connecticut Community Nonprofit Alliance to better understand the workplaces of nonprofit organizations in Connecticut. The survey nearly entirely replicates a 2021 survey conducted by the UNH Survey Center on behalf of the Connecticut Community Nonprofit Alliance and comparisons to the results of the previous iteration may be found throughout this report. Links to the survey were distributed by the Connecticut Community Nonprofit Alliance and one hundred sixty-two (162) organizations completed the survey between October 28, 2024 and January 21, 2025.

The following figures display the survey results, Appendix A contains detailed tabular results, and Appendix B contains detailed descriptions of the job titles included in this report. Due to rounding, percentages may not sum to 100%.

Key Findings

Organizational Demographics

Responding Connecticut nonprofit organizations most frequently report supporting children or youth, mental health, housing or homelessness, and developmental or intellectual disabilities. More than half have an office in Hartford County and just over a quarter have an office in New Haven County. Just over half of responding organizations were founded before 1980.

Organizational Finances

Responding Connecticut nonprofit organizations have a median annual budget of nearly $4.4 million, up from a median of about $2.25 million in 2021. Similarly, median spending on salaries and wages has nearly doubled from $1.1 million 2021 to $2.1 million in 2025. Organizations derive a plurality of their revenue from state governments, with large proportions also coming from the federal government, foundation and individual contributions, and non-governmental fees for services.

Employees

The average responding Connecticut nonprofit organization has 151 employees, up from 99 in 2021, while the median organization has 50 employees. The bulk of these employees are full-time permanent workers, with nearly all the rest being part-time permanent workers and very few seasonal full or part-time employees reported. The average responding organization has 186 volunteers, up from 107 in 2021. However, the median organization has only 10 volunteers and more than a third have none at all. Three in ten organizations contract rather than hire for at least one position and just over half expect their organization's staffing needs to increase over the next twelve months.

Board Members

The average responding Connecticut nonprofit organization has about fourteen Board Members, unchanged since 2021; organizations with higher budgets tend to have more Board Members.

Executive Directors

Nearly all responding Connecticut nonprofit organizations have an Executive Director or CEO; nearly two-thirds of Executive Directors and CEOs are female and more than three-quarters identify as White or European American. The average Executive Director or CEO has been with their current organization for about fourteen years in any role and in their current role for eight years; a majority did not have experience as an Executive Director or CEO prior to joining their current organization. These results closely mirror responses provided in 2021.

The average Executive Director or CEO earns $88.23 per hour, or $183,491 in full-time annual salary, up from $70.10 ($145,738) in 2021. Female Executive Directors and CEOs make about 25% less than their male counterparts overall. The gap in pay between male and female Executive Directors and CEOs is particularly pronounced among organizations with higher budgets. Executive Directors and CEOs working for organizations with larger budgets, those with more experience and education, those with offices located in Fairfield or New Haven County, and those whose organizations support adult behavioral health and health care tend to earn more in wages.

C-Level Executives

Nearly three-quarters of responding Connecticut nonprofit organizations have at least one paid C-level executive not including their CEO. The average organization has two such individuals, with organizations with larger budgets tending to have more than organizations with smaller budgets. Seven in ten such executives are females and more than three-quarters identify as White or European American.

Health Insurance

Most responding Connecticut nonprofit organizations offer group health and dental insurance for their employees and their dependents, in addition to life insurance and disability insurance for their employees. During their last renewal period, nine in ten say that their health insurance rates increased and more than half say they had to increase their own contribution while four in ten increased their employees' contribution. Nearly a quarter offer health insurance benefits to part-time employees, with the average organization requiring twenty-six hours of work weekly to qualify.

Retirement Benefits

One in six responding Connecticut nonprofit organizations offer a defined benefit retirement plan, while most offer a defined contribution retirement plan such as a 403(b), 457, or 401(k). The vast majority of organizations with a budget of $1 million or more offer a defined retirement plan but only just over half of organizations with a budget below $1 million do so. Among organizations which contribute to a defined contribution retirement plan, three-quarters contribute a percentage of the employee's contribution or deferral, with an average match rate of 63%, while one in six contribute a percentage of the employee's salary regardless of whether the employee contributes.

Paid Time Off

Two-thirds of responding Connecticut nonprofit organizations offer separate days for holidays, vacation days, and sick days to their employees, while just under a quarter combine vacation and sick days but keep holidays separate. Nearly two-thirds of organizations have a waiting period for new employees to be eligible for paid time off, with an average waiting period of fifteen weeks for vacation and just under ten weeks for sick days.

Organizations which have separate holidays, vacation days, and sick days on average offer about thirteen vacation days to start and a maximum of twenty-seven, nine sick days to start and a maximum of eighteen, and eleven holidays to start and as a maximum. Responding organizations offer slightly more vacation and sick days at maximum than responding organizations reported offering in 2021. Three-quarters offer paid time off to part-time employees, with the average organization requiring sixteen hours of work weekly to qualify.

Other Benefits

Six in ten responding Connecticut nonprofit organizations pay unemployment insurance through state unemployment taxes while four in ten self-insure by reimbursing state unemployment trust funds. Organizations have an average fringe rate of 19%, unchanged since 2021; organizations with larger budgets tend to have higher fringe rates than those with smaller budgets. Only one in twelve organizations are currently operating under a collective bargaining agreement.

Other benefits commonly offered by organizations include an Employee Assistance Plan (EAP), remote work, unpaid family medical leave, tuition reimbursement or professional development, and employer contributions to employees' health savings accounts for employees. Responding organizations are more likely than in 2021 to say that they offer an Employee Assistance Plan and tuition reimbursement or professional development. Few organizations offer child or elder care assistance, sabbaticals, or paid time off for volunteering. Nine in ten responding organizations reimburse mileage and the vast majority do so at the federal rate.

Wages & Salaries

The most common positions among responding Connecticut nonprofit organizations are Executive Directors or CEOs, Program Managers, Administrative Assistants, Program or Division Directors, Deputy Directors, Associate Directors, or Chief Operating Officers, and Chief Financial Officers; more than 40% of organizations have at least one of these types of employees. Very few have one or more Personal Care Assistant, Psychologist, Records Manager, or Physician.

The most highly compensated positions on average are Psychiatrists, Medical Directors, Physicians, Psychologists, Executive Directors or CEOs, General Counsels, and Advance Practice Registered Nurses, each of which on average are paid more than $80 per hour, or about $166,320 in full-time annual salary. Visitor Services Specialists, Food Service Assistants or Workers, and Warehouse Workers are the least compensated types of employees, each earning less than $19 per hour. Unsurprisingly, organizations with larger budgets tend to employ a greater number of people in a larger number of job types.

Overall, organizations report paying $42.11 per hour (unweighted by number of employees in each position) to the types of employees listed in the survey, up from $36.69 per hour in 2021, representing a nearly 15% increase. The largest increases (excluding positions with fewer than five records) in hourly salary since 2021 are for Chief Information Officers, Warehouse Managers, and Curators, all of which saw increases of more than 50% mean salary since 2021.

Organizational Demographics

One hundred sixty-two (162) Connecticut nonprofit organizations responded to the 2025 iteration of the survey. Six in ten (59%) of these nonprofit organizations have a physical office in Hartford County, 27% have an office in New Haven County, 20% have an office in Fairfield County, and 19% have an office in New London County. Ten percent or less of organizations have a physical office in Litchfield (10%), Middlesex (9%), Windham (7%), or Tolland (5%) counties.

Many of the organization's administrative headquarters are located in the middle of the state near Hartford and in the southern parts of Fairfield and New Haven counties.

Sixteen percent of responding Connecticut nonprofit organizations were founded before 1950, 20% were founded between 1950 and 1969, 18% were founded between 1970 and 1979, 20% were founded between 1980 and 1989, 10% were founded between 1990 and 1999, and 16% were founded in 2000 or later.

Figure 3: In what year was your organization founded/started?

Thirty-one percent of responding Connecticut nonprofit organizations support children's services or youth development, about a quarter each support mental health (25%), housing or homelessness (25%), or developmental or intellectual disabilities (24%), while slightly fewer support adult behavioral health (22%) or education (20%). Less than 20% support employment and/or job-related needs (16%), basic needs (15%), community building, volunteerism & economic development (14%), health care (14%), arts, culture, and humanities (13%), public benefit (12%), or seniors (12%). Less than 10% support community justice (7%), the environment (4%), research (4%), recreation, sports, or leisure (3%), foundation or grantmaking (2%), higher education (2%), hospitals (2%), or international areas (1%).

Figure 4: Which of the following service sectors does your organization's mission support? (Select all that apply)

Organizational Finances

Five percent of responding Connecticut nonprofit organizations have total budgeted operating expenses of less than $250,000, 5% have operating expenses between $250,000 and $499,999, and 9% have operating expenses between $500,000 and $999,999. One-third (33%) of responding organizations have total budgeted operating expenses between $1 million and $4.99 million, 13% have operating expenses between $5 million and $9.99 million, and 36% have operating expenses of $10 million or more. Responding organizations have median total budgeted operating expenses of $4,409,537, nearly double the median operating expenses among organizations which responded to the survey in 2021 ($2,276,875).

Figure 5a: Below, please enter the total budgeted operating expenses for your organization for the fiscal year you are reporting on.

Organizations which support adult behavioral health, health care (non-hospital), mental health, and seniors tend to have larger budgets while those which support basic needs, arts, culture, and humanities, community, volunteerism, and economic development, or public benefit tend to have smaller budgets.

Median

Thirteen percent of responding Connecticut nonprofit organizations have budgeted salaries and wages totaling less than $250,000, 7% have total salaries/wages between $250,000 and $499,999, and 10% have total salaries/wages between $500,000 and $999,999. More than one-third (35%) of responding organizations have total salaries/wages between $1 million and $4.99 million, 15% have total salaries/wages between $5 million and $9.99 million, and 19% have total salaries/wages of $10 million or more. Responding organizations have median total salaries/wages of $2,100,000, nearly double the median total salaries/wages among organizations which responded to the survey in 2021 ($1,104,080).

Figure 6a: Below, please enter the total budgeted salaries/wages for your organization for the fiscal year you are reporting on.

Organizations which support adult behavioral health, mental health, and health care (non-hospital), tend to spend more on salaries and wages while those which support arts, culture, and humanities and community, volunteerism, and economic development tend to spend less on salaries and wages.

Figure 6b: Below, please enter the total budgeted salaries/wages for your organization for the fiscal year you are reporting on. - By Areas Supported by Organization

On average, responding Connecticut nonprofit organizations say that 36% of their revenue during their most recent fiscal year came from the state government, 11% came from the federal government, 10% came from foundation contributions, 8% came from individual contributions, 8% came from non-governmental fees for services, and 6% came from local governments. Less than 5% of the organizations' revenues on average came from fundraisers (4%), investment income (4%), corporate contributions (3%), or membership dues (2%), while 10% of revenue came from other sources.

A greater proportion of responding organizations' income comes from state and local governments than among responding organizations in 2021, while a slightly lower proportion than in 2021 comes from individual contributions.

Figure 7a: During the fiscal year you are reporting on, what percentage of your revenue comes from each of the following sources?

Organizations with the largest budgets tend to derive more of their revenue from the federal government, while those with smaller budgets tend to derive more of the revenue from foundation and individual contributions along with other miscellaneous sources of revenue.

Figure 7b: During the fiscal year you are reporting on, what percentage of your revenue comes from each of the following sources? - By Total Operating Expenses

In their most recent fiscal year, 29% of responding Connecticut nonprofit organizations offered bonuses to all employees, 33% offered bonuses to some employees, and 39% did not offer bonuses to any employees. Responses to this question closely resemble responses in 2021.

Organizations with budgets of $5 million or more and those which support recreation, sports, and leisure are most likely to report having offered bonuses to all or some employees, while those with a budget between $250k and $499k and those which support higher education or public benefit are least likely to have done so.

Figure 8: In the fiscal year you are reporting on, did you offer bonuses to any employees?

Prior to the most recent fiscal year, 59% of responding Connecticut nonprofit organizations offered bonuses to some employees while 41% had not. Of those which offered bonuses in their most recent fiscal year, 90% had previously offered bonuses to all or some employees while 10% had not.

Figure 9: Prior to the fiscal year you are reporting on, did you offer bonuses to any employees?

Employees

The average responding Connecticut nonprofit organization has 99 permanent full-time salaried employees, 42 part-time salaried employees, as well as 4 seasonal full-time and 6 seasonal part-time workers. No organizations report having furloughed full-time or part-time workers.

Figure 10a: As of July 1, 2021, please indicate how many paid individuals you had in each of the following categories.

The average organization has 151 salaried employees in total, up from a mean of 99 salaried employees among organizations which responded in 2021. The median organization has 50 salaried employees, up from 31 in 2021.

Organizations which support adult behavioral health, mental health, and recreation, sports, and leisure tend to have a greater number of employees while those which support arts, culture, and humanities, the environment, and higher education tend to have fewer employees.

One percent of responding Connecticut nonprofit organizations say they have no employees, 15% have fewer than 10 employees, 34% have 10-49 employees, 10% have 50-99 employees, 22% have 100-249 employees, and 19% have 250 employees or more.

The average responding Connecticut nonprofit organization has 36 full-time volunteers, 75 part-time volunteers, 56 temporary or single event/single day volunteers, and 20 other types of volunteers.

The average organization has 186 volunteers in total, up from a mean of 108 volunteers among organizations which responded in 2021. The median organization has 10 salaried employees, down from 17 in 2021.

Organizations which support community, volunteerism, and economic development tend to have a greater number of volunteers while those which support adult behavioral health and higher education tend to have fewer volunteers.

Thirty-six percent of responding Connecticut nonprofit organizations say they have no volunteer employees, 10% have fewer than 10 volunteer employees, 22% have 10-49 volunteer employees, 9% have 50-99 volunteer employees, 8% have 100-249 volunteer employees, and 14% have 250 volunteer employees or more.

Eighteen percent of responding Connecticut nonprofit organizations say they contract rather than hire bookkeepers, 10% contract grant writers, 7% contract finance directors, 3% contract project managers, and 2% contract their Executive Director or CEO. Seven in ten (70%) responding organizations say they do not contract any of these positions. Responses to this question closely resemble those provided in 2021.

Organizations with large numbers of employees, those with higher budgets, and those which support health care (non-hospital) and adult behavioral health are more likely to contract at least one of these positions. Those with smaller numbers of employees, smaller budgets, and those which support community building, volunteerism & economic development or arts, culture, and humanities are less likely to contract at least one of these positions.

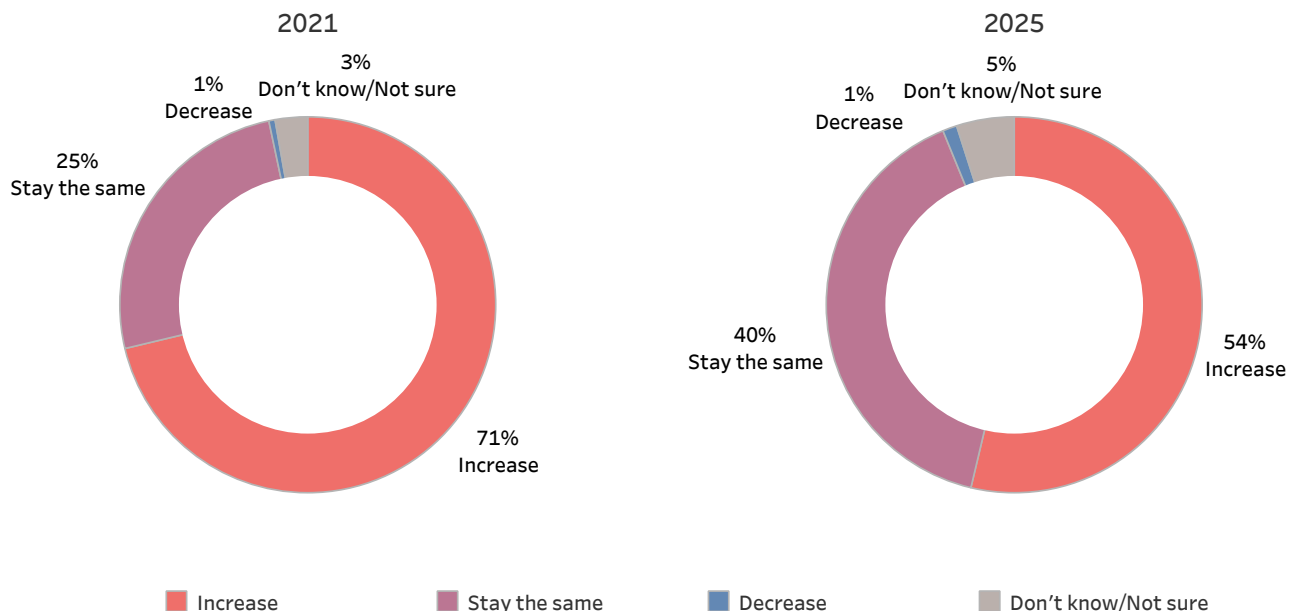

Figure 12: Does your organization contract (rather than hire) any of the following positions? (Select all that apply)

Just over half (54%) of responding Connecticut nonprofit organizations expect their staffing needs to increase over the next 12 months, 40% expect their needs to stay the same, 1% expect their staffing needs to decrease, and 5% don't know.

Organizations with large numbers of employees, those with higher budgets, and those which support adult behavioral health or employment or job-related needs are particularly likely to say that their staffing needs increased over the past 12 months, while those with fewer employees and those which support arts, culture, and humanities or basic needs are less likely to say that their staffing needs have increased.

Figure 13: Do you expect your staffing needs to increase, decrease, or stay the same over the next 12 months?

Board Members

A quarter (25%) of responding Connecticut nonprofit organizations say they have fewer than 10 Board Members, 30% have 10-14 Board Members, 28% have 15-19 Board Members, and 16% have 20 or more Board Members. Respondents to this survey in 2021 were more likely to say that their organizations has 10-14 Board Members. The median number of Board Members among responding organizations is 13, up very slightly from 12 in 2021.

Organizations with the highest budgets and those which support arts, culture, and humanities or recreation, sports, and leisure tend to have a greater number of Board Members while those with very few employees and those which support higher education tend to have fewer Board Members.

Thirteen percent of responding Connecticut nonprofit organizations say they have Board Members who are also compensated as staff members while 85% have no compensated Board Members.

Organizations which support employment or job needs or education are more likely to have Board Members who are also compensated as staff members.

Figure 15: Do you have any Board Members who are also compensated as staff members?

Executive Directors

Nearly all (98%) responding Connecticut nonprofit organizations say they have a paid Executive Director or CEO while 2% do not. In 2021, 97% of responding organizations reported having a paid Executive Director or CEO.

Among responding organizations which they have an Executive Director or CEO (N=156), 63% say their Executive Director or CEO is female, 35% say they are male, 1% say they do not collect this data, and 1% prefer not to answer. In 2021, 59% of responding organizations with an Executive Director or CEO said that person was female while 37% said that person was male.

Organizations with fewer than 10 employees or 50-99 employees, those with budgets between $500k and $999k, and those which support higher education, public benefit, or community building, volunteerism, and economic development are more likely than others to have a female Executive Director or CEO. Those with 100-249 employees, those with a budget between $5m and $9.99m, and those which support the arts, culture, and humanities are more likely to have a male Executive Director or CEO.

Among responding organizations which have an Executive Director or CEO, 77% say their Executive Director's racial identity or ethnicity is best described as White or European American, while 9% say it is Black or African American, 6% say it is Hispanic or Latino/a/x, and 1% each say their racial identity or ethnicity is best described as Asian or Asian American, Native American, American Indian, or Alaska Native, or Native Hawaiian or Pacific Islander. One percent say their Executive Director's identity is best described in another way, 4% do not collect this data, and 1% prefer not to answer. Responses to this question closely resemble those provided in the 2021 iteration of this survey.

Figure 18: Which of the following best describes the racial identity and/or ethnicity of your current Executive Director or CEO?

Among responding organizations which have an Executive Director or CEO, 1% say their Executive Director or CEO has a high school education, 2% have some college education, 1% have an Associate's degree, 20% have a Bachelor's degree, 5% have some post-graduate education, and 71% have a Master's degree or more education. Responses to the 2021 iteration of this survey were broadly similar.

Organizations with the largest budgets and those with greater numbers of employees are more likely to have an Executive Director or CEO who has a Master's degree or more education. Organizations which support the environment or recreation, sports, and leisure are less likely to have an Executive Director or CEO with a Master's degree or more education.

A quarter (26%) of Executive Directors or CEOs at responding Connecticut nonprofit organizations have been with their current organization in some role for less than five years, 24% have been there for 5-9 years, 24% have been there for 10-19 years, 12% have been there for 20-29 years, and 15% have been there for 30 years or more. The average Executive Director or CEO has been there for nearly 14 years while the median Executive Director or CEO has been there for 10 years, both unchanged since 2021.

Figure 20: How many years has your Executive Director or CEO been with your organization (in any role)?

A quarter (24%) of Executive Directors or CEOs at responding Connecticut nonprofit organizations have been with their current organization in their current role as Executive Director or CEO for less than three years, 25% have had that role for 3-5 years, 30% have had that role for 6-10 years, 15% have had that role for 11-20 years, and 6% have had that role for more than 20 years. The average Executive Director or CEO has been in that role for 7.6 years, down from 8.6 in 2021, while the median Executive Director or CEO has had that role for 6 years, unchanged since 2021.

Nearly two-thirds (64%) of Executive Directors or CEOs at responding Connecticut nonprofit organizations had no prior experience as an Executive Director or CEO. Ten percent had been in that role for 5 years or less before joining their current organization, 8% had had that role for 6-10 years, 9% had had that role for 11-20 years, and 8% had had that role for more than 20 years. The average Executive Director or CEO has 4.6 years of experience as an Executive Director or CEO prior to joining their current organizations, down from 5.2 in 2021.

Figure 22: How many years of Executive Director/CEO experience did your current Executive Director/CEO have prior to joining your organization?

The vast majority (90%) of responding Connecticut nonprofit organizations have one Executive Director or CEO at their organization, while 1% each have two employees, four employees, six employees, or eight employees in that position, while 7% do not have an Executive Director or CEO.

Only 4% of responding Connecticut nonprofit organizations pay their Executive Director or CEO less than $35 per hour, 12% pay between $35-$50/hour, 14% pay $50-$65/hour, 21% pay $65-$80/hour, 18% pay $80-$100/hour, and 31% pay more than $100/hour. Overall, the mean hourly wage among Executive Directors and CEOs of responding Connecticut nonprofit organizations is $88.23 per hour, up from $70.10 in 2021, while the median Executive Director or CEO earns $79.27 per hour, up from $68.00 in 2021.

Figure 23a: For each type of position contained in your organization, please indicate the average hourly wage for that position - Group 100 - Administration and Management - Executive Director/Chief Executive Officer

Female Executive Directors and CEOs earn an average hourly wage of $78.72 per hour, while their male counterparts earn $105.32 per hour, resulting in an overall female/male salary ratio of 74.7%. The disparity between female and male salaries is less pronounced among organizations with budgets below $5 million. The salary ratio between female and male Executive Directors and CEOs is similar among organizations with an ED/CEO who has 10 years of experience or less (79.4%) and among organizations with an ED/CEO who has more than 10 years of experience (75.5%).

The difference in pay between female and ED/CEOs at responding organizations has grown since 2021, when respondents reported that female ED/CEOs made 83% of the salary of their male counterparts.

Figure 23b: For each type of position contained in your organization, please indicate the average hourly wage for that position - Group 100 - Administration and Management - Executive Director/Chief Executive Officer - 2025 - By Gender

Executive Directors and CEOs at organizations with operating budgets of less than $1 million earn an average hourly wage of $52.29 per hour, those at organizations with budgets of $1m-$4.99m earn an average $77.60 per hour, those at organizations with budgets of $5m-$9.99m earn an average of $97.94, and those at organizations with budgets of $10m or more earn an average of $111.70 per hour. The average hourly wage for ED/CEOs has increased markedly since 2021 among organizations with a budget of $10 million or more but has remained largely unchanged among organizations with a budget between $5m and $9.99m.

Figure 23c: For each type of position contained in your organization, please indicate the average hourly wage for that position - Group 100 - Administration and Management - Executive Director/Chief Executive Officer - Mean by Organizational Operating Budget

Executive Directors and CEOs with 5 years or less total experience as an Executive Director or CEO earn an average of $70.37 per hour, those with 6-10 years experience earn an average of $90.36, those with 11-20 years experience earn an average of $106.57, and those with more than 20 years of experience earn an average of $99.96 per hour. The average hourly wage for ED/CEOs has increased only slightly since 2021 among ED/CEOs with 5 years or less of experience, while the average salary among ED/CEOs with 11-20 years has increased substantially in that time.

Figure 23d: For each type of position contained in your organization, please indicate the average hourly wage for that position - Group 100 - Administration and Management - Executive Director/Chief Executive Officer - Mean by Executive Director/CEO Experience

Executive Directors and CEOs without a Master's degree earn an average of $66.05 per hour while those with a Master's degree or more education earn an average of $98.07 per hour. The average hourly wage for ED/CEOs has increased only slightly since 2021 among ED/CEOs with less than a Master's degree, while it has increased substantially in that time among those with a Master's degree or more education.

Figure 23e: For each type of position contained in your organization, please indicate the average hourly wage for that position - Group 100 - Administration and Management - Executive Director/Chief Executive Officer - Mean by Executive Director/CEO Education

Executive Directors and CEOs at organizations with an office in Fairfield County earn the most per hour ($109.98), followed by organizations with offices in New Haven County ($106.71) and Middlesex County ($103.18), while those with office in Tolland ($82.01) and Hartford County ($85.22) earn the least. ED/CEO pay has increased most since 2021 among organizations with offices in New Haven County and Middlesex County.

Figure 23f: For each type of position contained in your organization, please indicate the average hourly wage for that position - Group 100 - Administration and Management - Executive Director/Chief Executive Officer - Mean by County with Physical Office

Executive Directors and CEOs at organizations which support adult behavioral health ($118.19), health care ($114.58), and mental health ($104.40) earn the largest pay per hour on average, while those at organizations which support international needs ($52.00), hospitals ($57.23), the environment ($59.66), or higher education ($66.93) earn the least. ED/CEO pay has increased most since 2021 among organizations which support recreation, sports, leisure or the arts, culture, and humanities.

Figure 23g: For each type of position contained in your organization, please indicate the average hourly wage for that position - Group 100 - Administration and Management - Executive Director/Chief Executive Officer - Mean by Service Areas Supported Twenty-nine percent of responding Connecticut nonprofit organizations offer a cash bonus as additional compensation to their Executive Director or CEO while 21% provide a phone allowance, 20% offer a car or travel allowance, and 15% offer additional vacation. Ten percent or less offer supplemental insurance (10%), supplemental retirement (1%), deferred compensation or a severance agreement (9%), a health club membership (1%), or something else (8%) in additional compensation, while 35% do not offer any additional compensation to their Executive Director or CEO. Organizations are very slightly less likely than in 2021 to offer additional vacation to the ED/CEO, while they are very slightly more likely to offer deferred compensation or a severance agreement.

Figure 24a: Please indicate any compensation you provide to your Executive Director/CEO above and beyond wages (Select all that apply)

Nearly half (46%) of organizations with budgets below $1 million say they do not provide any kind of extra compensation to their Executive Director or CEO, while organizations with larger budgets are more likely to do so. Those larger organizations are particularly more likely to offer a car or travel allowance or deferred compensation or a severance agreement.

Figure 24b: Please indicate any compensation you provide to your Executive Director/CEO above and beyond wages (Select all that apply) - 2025 - By Total Operating Expenses

Among organizations which offer a cash bonus to their Executive Director or CEO (N=33), 18% offer less than $5,000 in their cash bonus, 39% offer $5,000-$20,000, and 42% offer more than $20,000. Overall, the mean cash bonus is $24,130.14, up from $16,093.75 in 2021, while the median cash bonus is $18,700, up from $10,602.50 in 2021.

C-Level Executives

Just over a quarter (27%) of responding Connecticut nonprofit organizations have no paid C-Level executives not including their CEO, 20% have one, 20% have two, 11% have three, 7% have four, and 15% have five or more. Overall, the average organization has 2.1 paid C-Level executives, largely unchanged since 2021 (2.0), while the median organization has 2 C-Level executives.

Organizations with a greater number of employees, those with larger budgets, and those which support adult behavioral health and mental health tend to have a greater number of C-level executives.

Median

Among organizations which have paid C-level executives (N=114), 71% of those C-Level executive are women while 29% are men. In 2021, 68% of C-level executives at responding organizations were women while 32% were men.

Among organizations which have paid C-level executives, 77% of those C-Level executives best describe their racial identity or ethnicity as White or European American, 9% describe themselves as Black or African American, 7% describe themselves as Hispanic or Latino/a/x, and 4% describe themselves as Asian or Asian American. One percent describe themselves as biracial or multiracial while the race or ethnicity of 2% is unknown. In 2021, 83% of C-Level executives at responding organizations best described their racial identity or ethnicity as White or European American.

Health Insurance

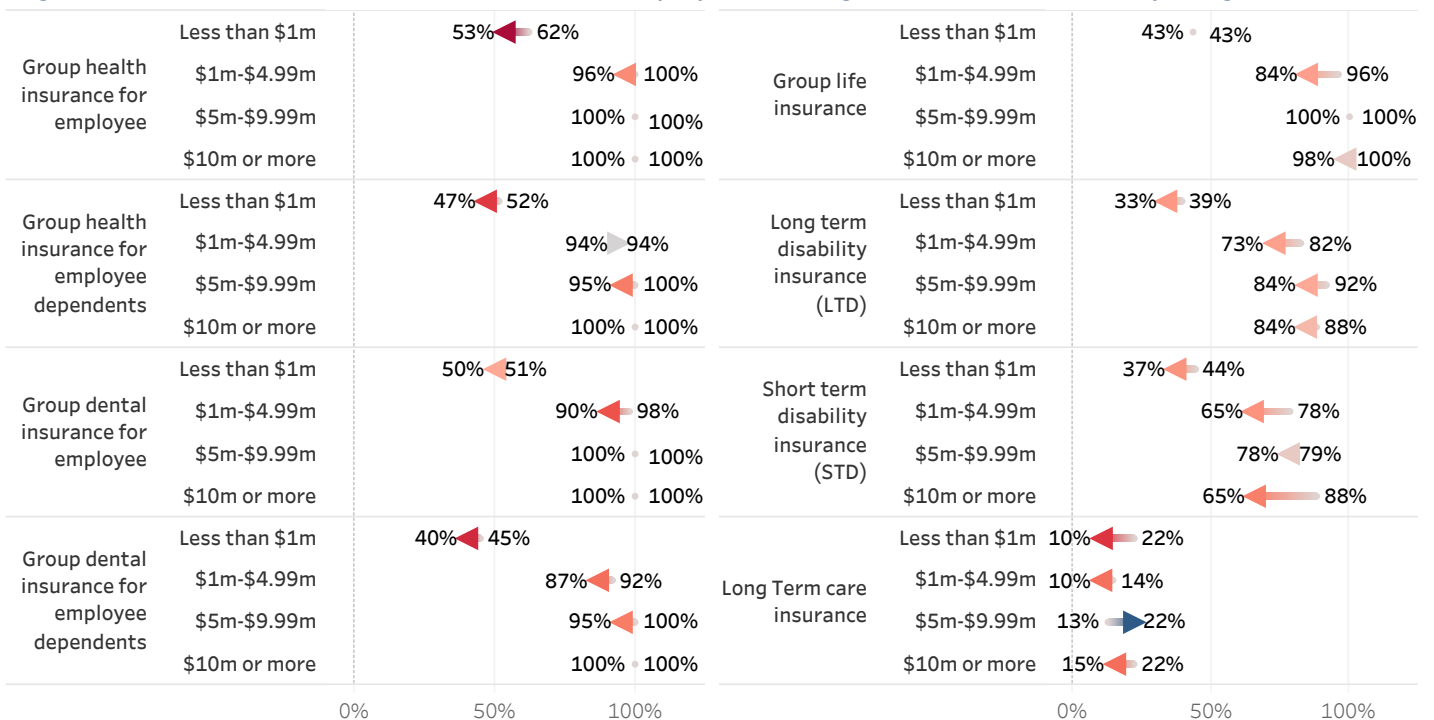

Nine in ten (90%) responding Connecticut nonprofit organizations offer group health insurance for their employees, 88% offer group health insurance for employee dependents, 88% offer group dental insurance for their employees, 84% offer group dental insurance for employee dependents, 84% offer group life insurance, 71% offer long-term disability insurance, 62% offer short-term disability insurance, and 14% offer long-term care insurance. Responding organizations are more likely than in 2021 to offer group health insurance for dependents, group dental insurance for employees, and group dental insurance for dependents, while they are less likely to offer short term disability insurance (STD) and long term care insurance.

The vast majority of organizations with a budget of $1m or more offer group health and dental insurance to their employees and their dependents as well as group life insurance. By contrast, only about half of organizations with budgets below $1m offer these benefits. Most organizations with budgets of $1m or more also offer long term and short term disability insurance, while organizations with a budget below $1m are considerably less likely to offer this. Few organizations of any budget size offer long term care insurance. Responding organizations generally are slightly less likely than responding organizations in 2021 to offer these benefits, particularly long and short term disability.

Figure 29b: Health insurance benefit offered to employees - Change from 2021 to 2025 - By budget

Among organizations which offer each of these health insurance benefits, majorities pay all of the costs of group life insurance (82%), long-term disability insurance (74%), and short-term disability insurance (64%). By contrast, more than half of organizations which offer group health insurance for employees (83%), group health insurance for employee dependents (57%), and group dental insurance for employees (55%) pay only 51-99% of the cost. About half of organizations which offer group dental insurance for dependents (51%) and long term care (48%) pay only 1-50% of the cost or the employee pays all of the cost.

Figure 29c: For each of the following insurance benefits that your organization offers or makes available to employees, check the box that best describes the portion of the insurance expenses that are paid by the employer vs. the employee

Among organizations which offer these health insurance benefits, there are no clear differences based on budget size in how much of the cost the organization pays for each benefit. Organizations of all sizes are more likely than in 2021 to say that their organization pays for at least 51% of the cost of group health and dental insurance for employees. For health and dental insurance for dependents, organizations with smaller budgets have become less likely to cover a majority of the costs, while organizations with larger budgets have become more likely to cover a majority of the costs.

Seven in ten (70%) responding Connecticut nonprofit organizations offer a high deductible health insurance plan with an accompanying Health Savings Account, Flexible Savings Account, or Health Reimbursement Account while 30% do not. Organizations with fewer employees and smaller budgets are less likely than others to offer this type of plan.

In 2021, 65% offered a plan like this while 35% did not.

Figure 30: Do you offer a high deductible health insurance plan with an accompanying Health Savings Account/Flexible Savings Account/Health Reimbursement Account?

Most (83%) responding organizations provide no compensation to employees who do not participate in the health care plan. Fourteen percent pay additional compensation to employees who do not participate in the health care plan while only 3% contribute to a HSA if an employee does not participate in the health care plan.

Figure 31: Does your organization compensate employees that do not participate in the health care plan, i.e. have a benefit offset payment plan?

Nine in ten (90%) responding organizations say that their rates increased during the last health insurance renewal period, 6% say their rates stayed the same, and only 3% say that they decreased. Organizations with smaller budgets are less likely than others to say that their rates increased during their last health insurance renewal period.

In 2021, 80% of responding organizations said that their rates had increased.

Figure 32: During your last health insurance renewal period, did your rates increase, decrease, or did they stay the same?

Twenty-three percent of organizations switched vendors during the last health insurance renewal period while 77% did not. About the same proportion reported having switched vendors in the 2021 iteration of this survey.

During their last health insurance renewal period, 51% of organizations changed their plans by increasing employer contributions while 6% decreased employer contributions. In that time, four in ten (40%) increased employee contributions while 5% decreased their employee contributions, 32% increased the deductible while 5% decreased it, 20% increased the co-pay while 2% decreased it, and 1% increased coverage while 3% decreased it. One-quarter (24%) did not have any change to their plan during the last health insurance renewal period.

Figure 34: During your last health insurance renewal period, did the plan you selected change in any of the following ways? (Select all that apply)

Twenty-three percent of organizations report that they offer health insurance benefits to part-time employees while 77% do not. Organizations with very few employees and the smallest budgets, along with organizations with the most employees and the largest budgets, are more likely than others to offer health insurance to part-time employees.

Results closely resemble those provided by responding organizations in 2021.

Figure 35: Do you offer health insurance benefits to part-time employees?

Among organizations which do offer health insurance benefits to part-time employees (N=33), 3% require part-time employees to work only 1 hour per week to be eligible for health insurance, 33% require 20 hours per week, 6% require 25 hours of work per week, and 58% require 30 hours of work per week to be eligible. Overall, the mean number of hours required to be eligible is 26, while the median is 30, both largely unchanged since 2021.

Figure 36: How many hours per week must part-time staff work to be eligible for health insurance?

Among organizations which do offer health insurance benefits to part-time employees, 70% say they use the same method for determining the employer's premium contribution for part-time staff as they do for full time employees, 21% use a pro-rated formula based on the number of hours worked, and 9% use another formula.

Figure 37: What is the method for determining the employer's premium contribution for part-time staff?

Retirement Benefits

Sixteen percent of responding Connecticut nonprofit organizations say that they have a defined benefit retirement plan while 84% do not. In 2021, 11% of responding organizations said that they offered a defined benefit retirement plan.

Figure 38: Does your organization offer a defined benefit retirement plan? That is, a plan that provides employees with a specific percentage of their salary upon retirement?

Eighty-five percent of responding Connecticut nonprofit organizations say they offer a defined contribution retirement plan such as a 403(b), 457 or 401(k) while 15% do not. In 2021, 75% of responding organizations said that they offered a defined contribution retirement plan.

Figure 39a: Does your organization offer a defined contribution retirement plan such as a 403(b), 457 or 401(k) where employees pay into a retirement fund and the organization may match some or all of the contributions/deferral?

Organizations with larger budgets are more likely to offer a defined contribution retirement plan to their employees. The vast majority of organizations with a budget of $10 million or more (93%), $5m-$9.99m (90%), or $1m-$4.99m (90%) offer such a plan, but only 57% of those with a budget below $1m offer one.

Figure 39b: Does your organization offer a defined contribution retirement plan such as a 403(b), 457 or 401(k) where employees pay into a retirement fund and the organization may match some or all of the contributions/deferral? - by Total Operating Expenses - 2025

Among responding Connecticut nonprofit organizations which offer a defined contribution retirement plan (N=137), three-quarters (75%) say they contribute a percentage of the employee's contribution or deferral, 17% contribute a percentage of the employee's salary regardless of employee's contribution or deferral, and 8% contribute to their employee's defined contribution accounts using another method. No responding organizations say that they contribute a flat dollar amount.

Please note: The category "We contribute a percentage of an employee's salary" was added post-facto from entries in the "Other" category.

Among responding Connecticut nonprofit organizations which contribute a percentage of the employees' contribution or deferral (N=87), 46% match 100% of their employees' contribution or deferral, 28% match 50%-99%, 5% match 10%-49%, 1% each match 4%-9% or 1%-3%, and 20% say that they match 0%. Overall, the average organization matches 62.7% of their employees' contribution or deferral, up from 50.1% in 2021.

Among responding Connecticut nonprofit organizations which contribute a percentage of their employees' contribution or deferral, 14% have a salary percentage limit on deferrals matched of more than 5%, 38% have a limit of 4%-5%, 28% have a limit of 1%-3%, and 20% have a limit of 0%. Overall, the average organization has a salary percentage limit of 3.5% on deferrals matched, down from 4.8 in 2021.

Paid Time Off

In their handling of paid time off, nearly two-thirds (65%) of responding Connecticut nonprofit organizations offer separate defined days for holidays, vacation days, and sick days while 23% keep holidays separate but combine the number of vacation and sick days offered. Small numbers of organizations combine holidays, vacation, and sick days as total time off days offered (6%), offer paid holidays but no other paid time off (1%), offer paid holidays but no other paid time off (1%), or offer no paid time off at all (1%). Four percent say they handle paid time off in another way. Responses to this question closely mirror responses provided by responding organizations in 2021.

Organizations with larger budgets tend to offer separate defined days for holidays, vacation days, and sick days, while those with the smallest budgets are more likely to have another arrangement for paid time off or to not offer paid time off at all.

Thirty-one percent of responding Connecticut nonprofit organizations offer different paid time off to different classifications of employees while 69% do not. In 2021, 35% of responding organizations offered different paid time off while 65% did not.

Figure 44: Does your organization offer different paid time off (holidays, vacation or sick days) to different classifications of employees?

Among responding Connecticut nonprofit organizations which offer paid time off (N=173), 63% say they have a waiting period for new employees to be eligible for paid time off while 37% do not have a waiting period.

Figure 45: Do you have a waiting period for new employees to be eligible for paid time off?

Among responding Connecticut nonprofit organizations which have a waiting period and offer separate defined days for holidays, vacation days, and sick days (N=74), 14% have a waiting period of less than 12 weeks for employees to be eligible to receive vacation days, 58% have a waiting period of 12-15 weeks, 4% have a waiting period of 16-20 weeks, and 24% have a waiting period of more than 20 weeks. The average organization has a waiting period of nearly fifteen weeks for employees to be eligible for vacation days, down from just over sixteen in 2021.

Figure 46a: How long is the required waiting period (in weeks) for employees to be eligible for paid time off? (Grouped) - Vacation Days

Among responding Connecticut nonprofit organizations which have a waiting period and offer separate defined days for holidays, vacation days, and sick days, 38% have a waiting period of less than 12 weeks for employees to be eligible to receive sick days, 53% have a waiting period of 12-15 weeks, 4% have a waiting period of 16-20 weeks, and 5% have a waiting period of more than 20 weeks. The average organization has a waiting period of nearly ten weeks for employees to be eligible for sick days, largely unchanged since 2021.

Figure 46b: How long is the required waiting period (in weeks) for employees to be eligible for paid time off? (Grouped) - Sick Days

Among responding Connecticut nonprofit organizations which keep holidays separate but combine the number of vacation and sick days offered or combine holidays, vacation, and sick days as total time off days offered (N=25), 44% say their waiting period for employees to be eligible for combined vacation and sick days is less than 12 weeks, 48% have a waiting period of 12-15 weeks, and 4% each have a waiting period of 16-20 weeks or more than 20 weeks. The average organization has a waiting period of nearly eleven weeks for employees to be eligible for combined vacation and sick days, largely unchanged since 2021.

Figure 46c: How long is the required waiting period (in weeks) for employees to be eligible for paid time off? (Grouped) - Combined vacation and sick days

Among responding Connecticut nonprofit organizations which combine holiday, vacation, and sick days (N=10), the average organization offers 17.5 total paid days off at the end of the grace period or the start of employment if there is no grace period, 21.5 total paid days off after two years, and 34.7 total paid days off at maximum. Responding organizations which offer paid time off this way offer slightly fewer combined days off on average than in 2021 at the end of the grace period or the start of employment and after two years, but slightly more at maximum.

Figure 47a: Whenever an employee is eligible, how many paid days off does he/she receive? Combined holiday, vacation, and sick days - Combined holiday, vacation and sick days - Mean

Among responding Connecticut nonprofit organizations which keep holidays separate but combine the number of vacation and sick days offered (N=37), the average organization offers 18.8 paid total vacation and sick days at the end of the grace period or the state of employment if there is no grace period, 21.9 total vacation and sick days after two years, and 29.9 days at maximum. Responding organizations which offer paid time off this way offer a very marginally higher number of days on average of at the end of the grace period or the start of employment, after two years, and at maximum.

The average organization offers 11.1 paid holidays at the end of the grace period or the start of employment, and effectively the same number after two years (11.0) and at maximum (11.0), up about one day each compared to responding organizations in 2021.

Figure 47b: Whenever an employee is eligible, how many paid days off does he/she receive? Combined vacation and sick days, separate holidays - Combined vacation and sick days/Separate holidays

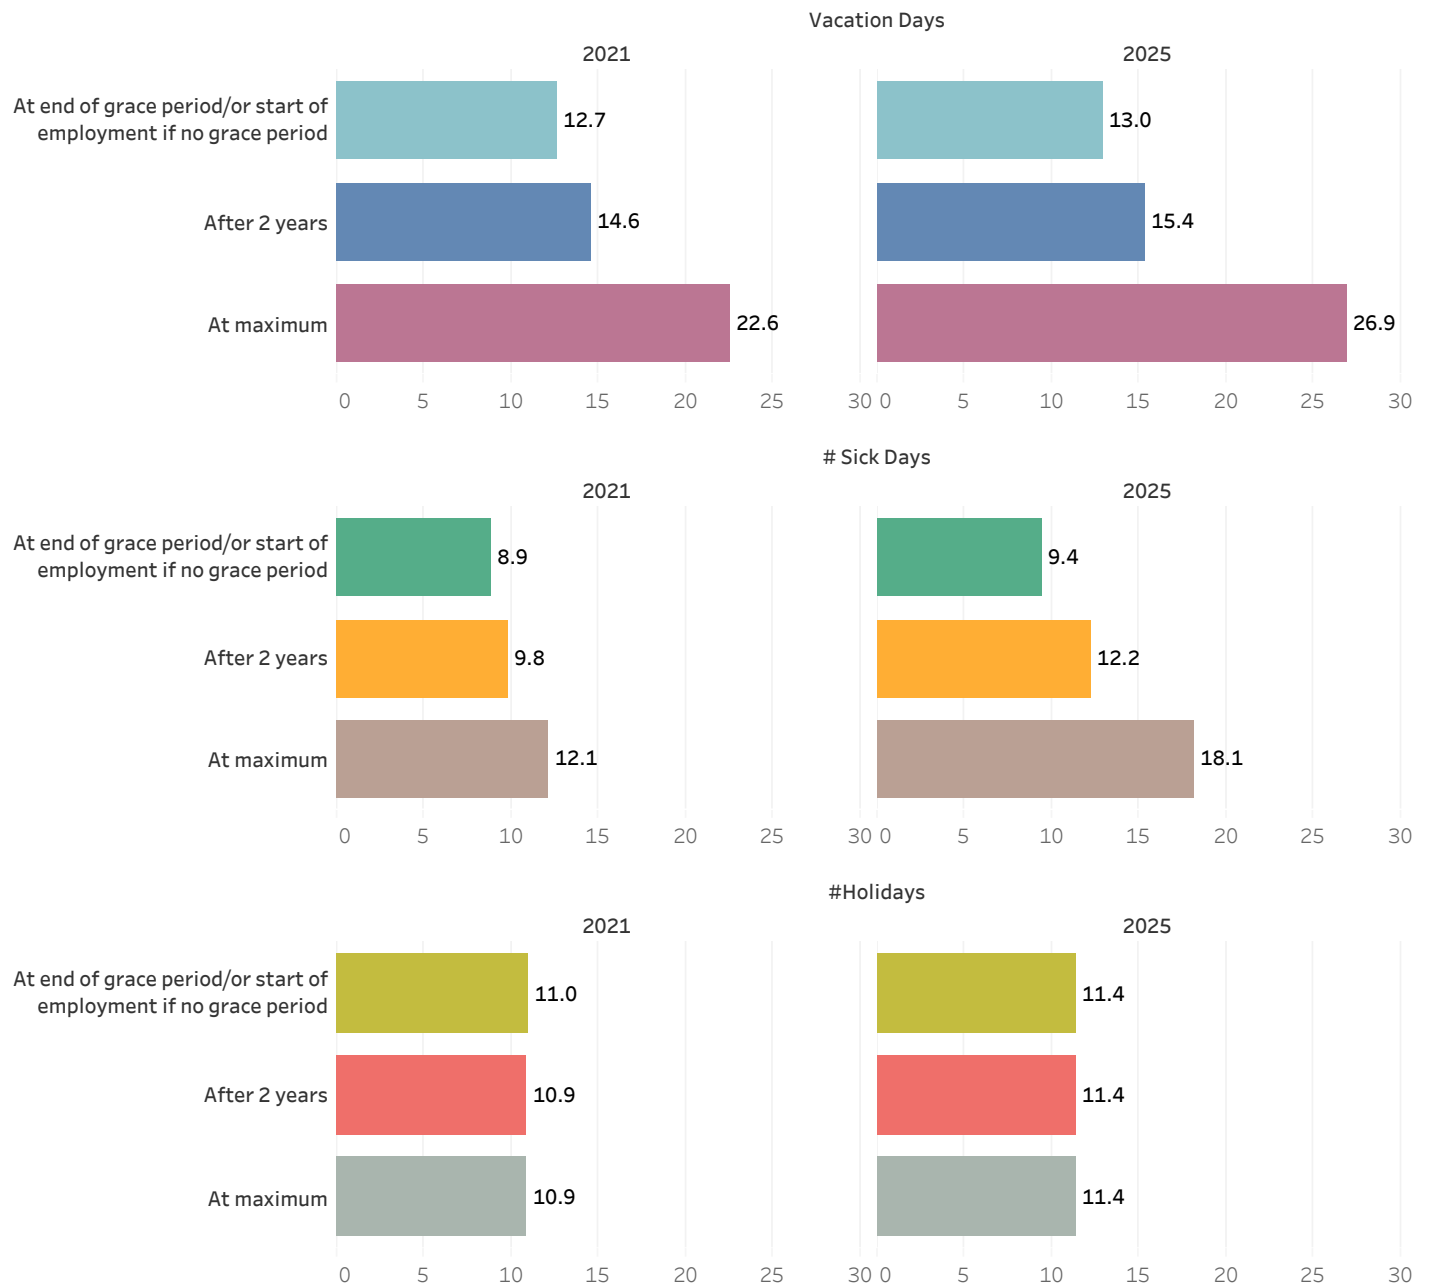

Among responding Connecticut nonprofit organizations which offer separate defined days for holidays, vacation, and sick days (N=161), the average organization offers 13.0 paid total vacation days at the end of the grace period or the state of employment if there is no grace period, 15.4 total vacation and sick days after two years, and 26.9 days at maximum. Responding organizations which offer paid time off this way offer slightly more vacation days on average than in 2021, particularly at maximum.

The average organization offers 9.4 paid sick days at the end of the grace period or the start of employment, 12.2 sick days after two years, and 18.1 at maximum, each slightly higher than among responding organizations in 2021 which offered paid time off this way, particularly at maximum.

The average organization offers 11.4 paid holidays at the end of the grace period or the start of employment and the same number after two years (11.4) and at maximum (11.4), each very slightly higher than among responding organizations in 2021 which offered paid time off this way.

Figure 47c: Whenever an employee is eligible, how many paid days off does he/she receive? Separate holiday, vacation and sick days

Nearly three-quarters (74%) of responding Connecticut nonprofit organizations say that part-time staff at their organization are eligible for paid time off while 26% say part-time staff are not eligible for paid time off. In 2021, 66% of responding organizations reported that part-time staff were eligible for paid time off at their organization.

Among organizations which do offer paid time off to part-time employees (N=116), 22% don't require part-time employees to work any hours per week to be eligible for paid time off, 19% require them to work 1-19 hours to be eligible, 36% require them to work 20 hours per week, and 23% require them to work more than 20 hours per week in order to be eligible for paid time off. Overall, the mean number of hours required to be eligible is 15.6 while the median is 20, both largely unchanged since 2021.

Figure 49: How many hours per week must part-time staff work to be eligible for paid time off?

Among organizations which do offer paid time off to part-time employees, 83% say the method of accrual of paid time off for their part-time employees is prorated by hours worked while 17% say they use another method. Responses to this question closely mirror those provided by responding organizations in 2021.

Other Benefits

Six in ten (60%) responding Connecticut nonprofit organizations say that they pay their unemployment insurance by paying state unemployment taxes (SUTA), 40% self-insure by reimbursing state unemployment insurance trust funds for the amount of benefits paid, and none say they are exempt from unemployment liability. Responses to this question closely mirror those provided by responding organizations in 2021.

Responding organizations with larger budgets tend to say that their organization self-insures while those with smaller budgets tend to pay state unemployment taxes.

Figure 51b: How does your organization pay for unemployment insurance? - by Total Operating Expenses - 2025

Fourteen percent of responding Connecticut nonprofit organizations say they have a fringe rate of 0%, 9% have a fringe rate of 1%-9%, 22% have a rate of 10%-19%, 17% have a rate of 20%-24%, another 21% have a rate of 25%-29%, and 17% have a rate of 30% or more. Overall, the mean fringe rate is 18.9% while the median is 21%, both largely unchanged since 2021.

Responding organizations with larger budgets tend to have higher fringe rates, as organizations with a budget of $10 million or more have an average fringe rate of 23.8%, while organizations with a budget below $1 million have an average fringe rate of 11.1%.

Figure 52b: What is your fringe benefit rate? - by Total Operating Expenses - 2025

Only 8% of responding Connecticut nonprofit organizations are under a collective bargaining agreement while 92% are not. In 2021, 11% of responding organizations said that their organization is under a collective bargaining agreement.

Among the following additional benefits offered to employees, 66% of responding organizations offer an Employee Assistance Plan, 63% offer remote work, 53% offer unpaid family medical leave, 45% offer tuition reimbursement or professional development, 36% offer employer contributions to employees' health savings accounts and 34% each offer a flexible benefit plan or paid family medical leave. Less than one-third of organizations offer unpaid maternity leave (32%), flextime for exempt EEs (26%), phone reimbursement (25%), unpaid paternity leave (24%), a health/wellness plan (23%), retirement counseling (22%), paid maternity leave (19%), or paid paternity leave (16%). Very few organizations offer child care assistance (5%), sabbaticals (4%), paid time off for volunteering (4%), or elder care (1%). Eleven percent offer another type of additional benefit to their employees while 3% offer none of these things. Responding organizations are more likely than responding organizations in 2021 to say that they offer an Employee Assistance Plan (+14 percentage points), employer contributions to employees' health savings accounts (+11), tuition/reimbursement/professional development (+10), while they are slightly less likely than organizations in 2021 to offer unpaid maternity leave (-9 percentage points), paid maternity leave (-6), and flextime for exempt EEs (-5).

Figure 54a: Which of the following additional benefits does your organization offer? (Select all that apply)

Responding organizations with larger budgets are more likely to offer most of these benefits, particularly an Employee Assistance Plan, unpaid family medical leave, tuition reimbursement/professional development, a health/wellness program, and retirement counseling. However, organizations with larger budgets are not more likely to offer remote work, which is offered by a majority of organizations of each budgetary level.

Nearly three-quarters (74%) of responding Connecticut nonprofit organizations say that they reimburse mileage at the federal rate, 18% reimburse at another rate, and 9% don't reimburse for mileage. In 2021, 70% responding organizations indicated that they reimbursed at the federal rate, 18% reimbursed at another rate, and 12% didn't reimburse.

Thirty percent of organizations with a budget below $1 million don't reimburse for mileage while all organizations with budgets of $5 million or more reimburse for mileage.

Figure 55: What is your mileage reimbursement rate for employees?

Among organizations which reimburse at another rate (N=18), 7% reimburse at a rate of less than $.40 per mile while 93% reimburse at a rate of $.50 or more per mile. The mean reimbursement rate is $.56 per mile, up from $.47 in 2021, while the median is $.58, up from $.50 in 2021.
